STUDENT BEHAVIOR:

To ensure every scholar receives ample opportunity to be successful in recovering needed credits, student behavioral expectations are in place and outlined on the enrollment sheet. The same behavior expectations we have during the regular school year apply for Summer School. The consequences for students who do not follow the expectations follow:

- 1st Warning: Verbal Warning and a Call Home
- 2nd Warning: Call Home – moved to a separate room
- 3rd Warning: Removal from Summer School

DRESS CODE:

Students are not required to wear dress code; however, their dress must be appropriate for the school setting. No flip-flops, no holes in shirts or pants, no short-shorts, or crop tops, and/or sheer clothing.

We have guests in the building throughout the summer and dress code will be strictly enforced. Students will be sent home for clothing deemed inappropriate by the leadership.
